

queer quest July update

queer quest

We are moving to The Brocas, 111 Woodville Road, St Clair!
Queer Quest will change to Wednesday 3pm-6pm every week.

Activities when scheduled will start from 4pm.

Start date TBD (very soon, just need some final signatures!)

- We will be in a much bigger space with couches, projectors, access to new equipment, etc. A separate sensory friendly space will be available.
- Sessions alternate between a general social hangout and activities, with flexibility around events, etc.
- Aisha from The Brocas will help Kat run each week.
- If you would like to see the new space before attending, please chat to Kat and we can organise this.

parents, carers, supporters

- We will have a separate space with tea and coffee set up for you to relax and chat with others if you'd like.
- We are working on useful resources/speakers/etc we can provide from time to time also! Please let us know if there's anything you'd like from us.

D&D

D&D will continue to run on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of the month 4-6.15pm at headspace Port Adelaide.

- The D&D group is now closed to new members and is separate from Queer Quest.
- This session is now only open to players (no hangout).
- Please ensure you RSVP when reminders are sent. We will respond if we need to place you on a waitlist. Please contact us if you can no longer attend.
- Please let us know if you have an interest in weekly sessions (no promises!), we are also looking for a better space to run this group.

headspace hangout

(those attending D&D nights and not playing)

- This will no longer be an option as we will have Queer Quest on the day after. Tuesday sessions will be D&D players only.
- We can revisit this in the future if people still want the space to just hangout with each other on D&D nights.