join our youth reference group!

Are you passionate about the mental health and wellbeing of young people?

We're looking for people aged 16-25 to join our Youth Reference Group.

Advocate for the young people within your communities & make a difference by getting involved in youth-focused fun events and projects!

What you do

- Attend monthly meetings (snacks included!)
- Plan and run youth-friendly events, activities and programs
- Represent headspace at local events
- Participate in professional & personal development (if you want to!)
- Tell us what young people are concerned about, want and need (most important!)
- Assist our clinical team to ensure headspace stays youth-focused
- Connect with like-minded young people

What we can do for you

- Provide free professional & personal development training opportunities
- Give you experience working within a large health organisation
- Support your skills development & knowledge of event & project planning, group collaboration, communicating effectively & advocacy
- We will cover all reasonable travel costs for events you attend
- We will provide reimbursement for your time when you undertake tasks outside of your YRG role (such as sitting on an interview panel)
- Support you in achieving your advocacy goals!
