Current opportunities

We're currently recruiting staff for a number of our programs, including Youth Access Work, Leadership, Enhanced Mental Health in Secondary Schools and COVID-19 Support, and there'll be time at the end of the presentations for you to speak with our team and ask any questions you may have.

Our current vacancies are ideal for:

- newly-qualified graduates of social work or psychology
- experienced clinicians who are looking for a new career pathway
- clinicians with a bachelor in allied health
- individuals who meet the above criteria and fancy a 'sea/tree change' to East Gippsland.
