

heART & soul

Sometimes it's hard to find the words for how you're feeling.

Creating art can help us slow down, explore our thoughts and feelings, and express ourselves.

Each week, as a group, you'll get to try a range of artforms including visual art, sculpting, poetry and drama in a safe space where we can be open about mental health.

Materials will be provided, but you are welcome to bring in materials of your own (e.g. for electronic art). All levels of abilities are welcome.
