headspace Mount Gambier is a good place to talk about your wellbeing

headspace Mount Gambier supports young people aged 12 – 25, who are seeking support for:

- mental health
- physical health (including sexual health)
- alcohol and other drugs
- work and study

We can help with:

Mental health

We can help if you or someone you know are:

- feeling down
- feeling stressed or worried a lot of the time
- experiencing relationship problems or difficulties with your family or friends
- wanting to talk about sexuality or gender identity
- just not feeling yourself, or if you've noticed changes in your thoughts, feelings or behaviour.

Physical health

Our headspace centre is connected with youth-friendly doctors and nurses who can assist you with issues related to:

- any physical health issues
- contraception and sexual health
- drug or alcohol use

Work, school and study

We can help if you are:

- struggling at school or work and feeling anxious or stressed
- unsure of what course you want to do
- needing a hand writing a resume
- seeking help in searching for a job

Alcohol and other drugs

Alcohol and other drugs can affect things that matter to you, like your mental health, wellbeing or friendships. If you're having a hard time, we can support you to get things back on track.

Appointments

Referrals can be made by:

LINK group (free)

We offer an inclusive group for young people aged between 18 to 25 who are ready to step out of their comfort zone. LINK is a relaxed space aimed at building connections with other young people and learning useful life skills, while enjoying fun activities. This group meets fortnightly on a Wednesday, from 2pm - 4pm at the Mount Gambier Library.

LGBTIQ+ group (free)

Our LGBTIQ+ group is a welcoming space for young people aged between 12 and 25, who identify as sexually or gender diverse. We meet fortnightly on a Tuesday, between 5pm - 6.30pm. During the session young people can chill out, play video games or board games, cook and bake or watch movies with other young people identifying as sexually or gender diverse.

Youth Sexual Health Clinic (free)

The headspace Youth Sexual Health Clinic is available on two afternoons a month. This free service offers sexual health counselling, STI screenings, cervical screening tests, pregnancy testing and counselling and information on emergency contraception, long term contraception & reproductive health with our non-judgemental, friendly nurse, Carolyn.
