

Applications are now open for the:

headspace Narre Warren Youth Advisory Committee

Are you aged between 16 and 25 and live, work or study in the Casey and Cardinia region? Do you have something to say about youth mental health, and drug and alcohol issues?

What is the headspace Youth Advisory Committee (YAC)?

headspace is providing young people with the opportunity to be heard and be active around youth mental health, and alcohol and other drug issues. There are a number of roles you can play in the headspace Collingwood YAC, including:

- Leading a project in your local area
- Website consultation and development
- Research and evaluation of headspace services
- Consultation around resource development such as factsheets, brochures, radio ads etc
- Peer support and mentoring
- Speaking to the media

By getting involved you will:

- Have the opportunity to have your say and direct youth mental health services in Australia
- Develop new skills
- Meet and work with other young people who are passionate about youth mental health
- Make a difference to youth mental health

headspace will provide some training to support you in the YAC role

How do I get involved?

Complete the application form and email it to requests@headspacenarre.com.au

Or you can post it to: headspace Narre Warren 66 Victor Crescent
Narre Warren 3805
Attention to: Community Engagement Team

Who can apply?

We are looking for anyone aged between 16 and 25 who is interested in youth mental health

We want you to apply if:

you have had your own experiences of feeling depressed, anxious or another mental health issue

you have a friend or family member who has/or had a mental health issue

you feel passionate about and are interested in mental health issues

The group is also keen to hear the voices of Indigenous young people, young people from different cultural backgrounds, young people from rural and remote areas, gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender young people and young people who have been homeless.
